- The Issuer is subject to a number of strict and extensive regulatory rules and requirements.
- RBI is exposed to risks due to its interconnectedness concerning the Institutional Protection Scheme.
- Potential losses due to settlement risks arise from the time-lag between the dates of the exchange of cash, securities, or assets respectively.

1.3 KEY INFORMATION ON THE SECURITIES

1.3.1 What are the main features of the securities?

The Notes will be issued in bearer form and are governed by the laws of Austria as to status provisions and Germany as to the content and all rights and obligations. Form and custody of the Notes will be governed by the laws of Austria. The Notes are issued in U.S. Dollar (USD), in the aggregate principal amount of up to USD 50,000,000 divided into Notes in a denomination of USD 2,000. The ISIN of the Notes is AT000B015227. The Notes have not been rated.

Status of the Notes

Ordinary Senior Notes: The obligations under the Notes constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer ranking in the event of normal insolvency proceedings (bankruptcy proceedings) or liquidation of the Issuer pari passu among themselves and pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated instruments or obligations of the Issuer except for any instruments or obligations preferred or subordinated by law.

Interest Rate

The Notes shall bear interest annually in arrear based on their principal amount during the Interest Periods from (and including) 1 February 2022 (the "Interest Commencement Date") to (but excluding) the last Coupon Date.

- The rate of interest is 1.50 per cent per annum.
- Indication of yield / Unified Yield is 1.50 per cent per annum.

Term of the Instruments

Unless previously redeemed in whole or in part or purchased and cancelled, each Note shall be redeemed at its Final Redemption Amount on 1 February 2025 (the "Maturity Date"). The Final Redemption Amount in respect of each Note shall be equal to its principal amount.

Early Redemption

Early Redemption for Reasons of Taxation.

The Notes can be redeemed at the option of the Issuer (in whole but not in part) if as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of Austria or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereto or therein affecting taxation or the obligation to pay duties of any kind, or any change in, or amendment to, an official interpretation or application of such laws or regulations, which amendment or change is effective on or after the date on which the last tranche of this series of Notes was issued, the Issuer is required to pay additional amounts on the Notes. The Early Redemption Amount equals the Final Redemption Amount.

Limitations of rights

Possibility of statutory resolution measures

Prior to any insolvency or liquidation of the Issuer, under the applicable banking resolution provisions, the Resolution Authority may exercise the power to write down (including to zero) the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes, convert them into shares or other instruments of ownership of the Issuer, in each case in whole or in part, or apply any other resolution tool or action, including (but not limited to) any deferral or transfer of the obligations to another entity, an amendment of the Conditions or a cancellation of the Notes.

"Resolution Authority" means the resolution authority pursuant to Article 4(1)(130) CRR (Capital Requirements Regulation) which is responsible for recovery or resolution of the Issuer on an individual and/or consolidated basis.

The presentation period provided in § 801 subparagraph 1 of the German Civil Code in relation to the Notes is (i) unlimited in respect of principal and (ii) unlimited in respect of interest.

Restrictions on free transferability

Not applicable. The Notes are freely transferable.

1.3.2 Where will the securities be traded?

The Notes will be admitted to trading on the Official Market of the Vienna Stock Exchange on or around 1 February 2022.

1.3.3 What are the key risks that are specific to the securities?

- Holders of the Ordinary Senior Notes are exposed to the risk of statutory loss absorption.
- In case of an insolvency of the Issuer, certain deposits and certain other claims have a higher ranking than claims resulting from the Ordinary Senior Notes.
- Holders of the Ordinary Senior Notes are exposed to the risk that the Issuer may issue further debt instruments or incur further liabilities.
- Regardless of whether the Notes are listed or not, there can be no assurance that any liquid secondary market for the Notes will develop. In an illiquid market, an investor might not be able to sell its Notes at any time at fair market prices.
- A Holder of Notes is exposed to the risk of an unfavourable development of market prices of its Notes which materialises if the Holder sells the Notes prior to the final maturity of such Notes. Holders of Fixed Rate Notes are particularly exposed to the risk that the price of such Notes falls as a result of changes in the Market Interest Rate levels.
- In case of ESG Notes there is the risk that such use of proceeds will not be suitable for the investment criteria of an investor and any failure to apply such use of proceeds as originally envisaged does not constitute an event of default or give rise to any claim against the Issuer.
- No assurance or representation is given as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion, report or certification of any third party.

- A Holder of Notes denominated in a foreign currency is exposed to the risk of changes in currency exchange rates which may affect the yield of such Notes.
- The Notes are not covered by any (statutory or voluntary) deposit guarantee scheme.

1.4 KEY INFORMATION ON THE OFFER OF SECURITIES TO THE PUBLIC AND/OR THE ADMISSION TO TRADING ON A REGULATED MARKET

1.4.1 Under which conditions and timetable can I invest in this security?

The Notes will be offered to investors by the Issuer and/or the Generally Authorised Offerors and the Specifically Authorised Offeror at an initial issue price of 100.00 per cent of the principal amount on the First Trade Date. Further issue prices will be determined based on market conditions; Maximum Issue Price: 105.00 per cent of the principal amount. The offer period will commence on 21 January 2022 (including) and will be open until 17 January 2025 (including) at the latest unless the offer is terminated by the Issuer, or the aggregate principal amount is reached, or early redemption takes place.

Plan for distribution and public offer of the Notes

A public offer to retail investors will be made in Austria, Germany and Hungary. The Public Offer in Austria will be made by the Issuer and / or the Generally Authorised Offerors during the offer period. The Public Offer in Germany will be made by the Issuer. A public offer to retail investors will be made in Hungary by the respective Specifically Authorised Offeror.

Conditions and technical details of the offer

The Issuer reserves the right to terminate the offer prematurely. Apart from the conditions set out in this summary there are no further conditions to which the offer is subject.

Confirmation in relation to an order and allotments as well as delivery of the Notes

Delivery and payment of the Notes will be made on or about 1 February 2022 for the first time and afterwards on further issues dates to be determined by the Issuer. The Notes will be delivered via OeKB CSD GmbH (the "Clearing System") and its depositary banks against payment of the issue price.

Estimated expenses charged to the investor

Not applicable; the Issuer itself does not charge any expenses. However, other costs such as deposit fees might be charged. In case of subscriptions via the Generally Authorised Offerors or the Specifically Authorised Offeror purchase fees, selling fees, conversion fees and depositary fees charged by the financial intermediaries and depositary banks are to be expected.

Estimate of the total expenses of the issue and offer

The Issuer expects to incur offer-related expenses of approximately EUR 3,500.

1.4.2 Who is the offeror and/or the person asking for admission to trading?

The Notes will be publicly offered by the Issuer and/or the Generally Authorised Offerors or the Specifically Authorised Offeror. The Issuer is the entity requesting for the admission to trading of the Notes.

1.4.3 Why is this base prospectus being produced?

1.4.3.1 Reasons for the offer or for the admission to trading on a regulated market

The reasons for the offer are to generate funding, to hedge certain risks or to take advantage of current market opportunities (arbitrage) and as further described below.

1.4.3.2 Use and estimated net amounts of the proceeds

The Issuer will apply an amount equivalent to the net proceeds from the issue of the Notes specifically for financing and/or re-financing loans to projects and activities that promote climate-friendly and other environmental or sustainable purposes ("Eligible Green Loans"), as further described in RBI's Green Bond Framework. In any case, the Issuer is free in the use of proceeds from each issue of Notes.

1.4.3.3 Placement Agreement

The Issuer has agreed in an agreement to be signed on or about 21 January 2022 (the "Placement Agreements") to entitle the Specifically Authorised Offeror to distribute the Notes in the respective jurisdiction on a best-efforts basis.

The Specifically Authorised Offeror's commission amounts up to 1.50 per cent. of the nominal amount of the Notes distributed.

1.4.3.4 Material conflicts of interest pertaining to the offer or the admission to trading

There are no material conflicts of interest pertaining to the offer or the admission to trading.
