

New Management Board Member for Markets at RBI

Vienna, 30 January 2012. The Supervisory Board of Raiffeisen Bank International AG (RBI) today appointed Klemens Breuer as a new member of the bank's Management Board. As of 16 April, Breuer will be responsible for the RBI board division Markets, which includes Investment Banking. Patrick Butler, who currently holds this position, will at his own request resign his mandate as of 15 April. Klemens Breuer's appointment is subject to the approval of Austria's Financial Markets Authority.

Klemens Breuer was a member of the Management Board at WestLB AG from 2008 until mid-January 2012. In this function, Breuer was responsible for Equity Markets, Debt Markets, Research and Treasury. He had held leading positions in the capital markets and treasury operations of WestLB and Deutsche Bank in Düsseldorf, Frankfurt and London prior to joining WestLB's managing board.

Patrick Butler was in charge of Treasury, Markets and Research as a Board Member of Raiffeisen Zentralbank Österreich AG (RZB) in the years 2004 to 2010. After the merger of Raiffeisen International with principal business areas of RZB, he became a Board Member of RBI responsible for Markets, including Investment Banking.
