

RBI: Sale of Raiffeisen Bank Aval not fixed

Vienna, 18 November 2013. In light of current media reports Raiffeisen Bank International AG (RBI) is clarifying its position in relation to coverage about its intention to sell certain operations.

At this point in time there is no intention to sell the Ukrainian Raiffeisen Bank Aval and consequently there is no corresponding resolution. It is however accurate that various parties with interest in purchasing Raiffeisen Bank Aval have approached RBI. As RBI is continuously reviewing the environment, dialogues have been entered into with these parties, in order for the offers to be evaluated and a basis to be established for a decision as to whether and at which price the Raiffeisen Bank Aval could be sold.

In addition to the Ukraine, markets such as Hungary and Slovenia are currently under special review and a withdrawal from these markets cannot be excluded.

A clarification in relation to the media reports appeared to be necessary in order to avoid creating false expectations among investors.
