

Lukasz Januszewski to be new RBI Management Board member in charge of Markets

Vienna, 15 January 2018. The Supervisory Board of Raiffeisen Bank International AG (RBI) today appointed Lukasz Januszewski (39) to RBI's Management Board. He will be in charge of the Markets area and thus succeed Klemens Breuer who left the bank in October 2017. Januszewski is currently a member of Raiffeisen Bank Polska's Management Board where he is responsible for Markets and Investment Banking. His appointment is still subject to the approval of the supervisory authorities.

The career of economist Januszewski within the RBI Group started in the Treasury area of Raiffeisen Bank Polska in 1998. After that he had leading positions in the Capital Markets area and has held his current position since 2007.

RBI's Management Board will thus consist of Johann Strobl (CEO), Martin Grüll (CFO), Andreas Gschwentner (COO/CIO), Lukasz Januszewski (Markets), Peter Lennkh (Corporate Banking), Hannes Mösenbacher (CRO) and Andrii Stepanenko (Retail).
